Section 2: Staff Needs

It is estimated that we spend 30% of our lives working; for most of us that time is spent in a different environment to what we would personally chose. It has been proven by psychologists that on a day to day basis the space around you has a large effect on how you feel and function at work. With the new build in mind take 2 minutes to think about your needs at work with regards to space and environment...
